MYOSOTIS RANGE
Notice Boards

MYOSOTIS

Myosotis is a range of sheet steel magnetic notice boards designed to create a safe place to store those important items that are commonly misplaced. Available in a variety of colours & sizes, the concept behind this project came from a challenge to design & fully manufacture a product within a one-mile radius. More than 5,000 of these have been supplied to architects, designers, brands & customers around the world.

Brand: Richard Bell for Psalt Design.
